

Bullets from Friends and Enemies
Struck Him—A Small Riot
At Corbin, Ky.

Corbin, Ky., Dec. 11.—A riot was started near the passenger depot Saturday night between Floyd and Ed Chadwell and City Marshal Ellige Bingham and his deputies, Henry and Hartford. Trouble arose over the Chadwells shooting off their guns and the marshal and his deputies trying to make arrests. Hartford chased a man whom he thought was Floyd Chadwell 500 yards, both shooting at each other, and which resulted in the killing of Deputy Marshal Hartford. Hartford received one shot through the heart by the man he was pursuing and one through the back from some one who was following him and who was assisting in making the arrest of the Chadwells.

City Marshal Bingham chased Ed Chadwell around the corner of Laurel avenue, about 300 yards from the depot, and back on a little side street and caught him back of Mr. Bowcock's barber shop. The governor was wired for part of a militia company located here, but no answer had been received late Saturday night. Everything is quiet here now, but further trouble may be expected at any time.

It is learned that Floyd Chadwell arrived from Clay county a few days ago. He has not been caught up to this time, but the citizens are out looking for him, and should he be caught he will be taken to Williamsburg, the county seat of Whitley, and given a fair trial.

The troops are out, the town has been declared under martial law and there is an ominous quietude prevailing. Any moment may bring sensational developments. A man named Shotwell was shot in the leg during the fight Saturday night, but not dangerously hurt.

We cannot hope to accomplish the unloading without extra inducements to the purchaser. We are going to induce you to help us unload. We know of no plainer way to convince you that we are in earnest than this proposal: Go into any clothing house in or out of town, price their merchandise, then look at and price ours. That will tell the story of the unloading of our stock to make room for the improvements.
